AGCO | Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario

Ontario

Horse Racing

Renewal of Teletheatre Licence

2019 Process and Required Documents

September 26, 2018 - A complete renewal application for a License to Operate a Teletheatre includes the following documents, which must be submitted or on file with the Alcohol & Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO) before 5:00 p.m. on the dates indicated below:

Documents required by October 26, 2018

Application for Renewal of Teletheatre Licence
A complete application includes:

- Completed Application for Renewal of Teletheatre Licence form

Updates to Teletheatres
Any changes to the ownership or management of a teletheatre must be reported to the AGCO. Updates may require:

- Completed Teletheatre Operator Disclosure Form
- Articles of Incorporation

Documents submitted to the AGCO are confidential and private unless otherwise specified. All documents submitted to the AGCO are subject to the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.O. 1990, c F.31.

Forms and information are available on the AGCO Horse Racing website at: www.agco.ca

Filing Format
The preferred submission format for material is electronic.

All material must be submitted to the attention of:

Jessica Harvie
Licensing Coordinator
(416) 326-0863
jessica.harvie@agco.ca

Please direct any questions regarding this material to Jessica Harvie.

© Queen's Printer of Ontario, 2018