
CPMA – Update on retention area items

INFORMATION BULLETIN No. 39

March 30, 2017 – On March 28, 2017, the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency (CPMA) released a Memorandum to the Canadian horse racing industry.

“Further to the Notice to Industry dated September 16, 2016, the CPMA has listened to feedback received concerning the number of buckets allowed in with a horse called to test and the prohibition of towels in the retention area.”

A copy of this CPMA memo is attached to this bulletin.

The AGCO issues this Information Bulletin as a service. AGCO licensees are expected to know the Rules of Racing, closely review all memos from the CPMA, and keep up to date on the Schedule of Prohibited Drugs.
