There are two extra vets on duty for Queens Plate day bringing the total to four. Shaded areas provided for There are several cooling stations set up for horses immediately following the race and prior to unsaddling as well as many hoses, ice buckets and sweat scrapers available for the return to the stabling area. Rubbing alcohol and sponges will be available to start the evaporative process and assist the animal to release heat buildup. Post parades will also be lessened.

Film Reviews:

Race 6 from Sunday June 24, involving riders Emile Ramsammy and Ademar Santos for interference during the stretch run. Emile said his horse was full of run and we were approaching the wire when Ademar's horse came over into him knocking him off stride. Only beat me a short margin, believe I still had a chance at the win until then. His horse was lugging in with him. Ademar said his horse was lugging in hard and did his best to keep off of Emile. Felt Emile's horse stepped out a bit at the same time making it seem worse. No action taken.

Races:

Race 1 - #4 "Forester's Destiny" with Kazushi Kimura aboard was off slow.

Race 2 - #6 "Mr Ritz" ridden by Eurico Da Silva drifted out through the stretch.

Race 3 – Clear

Race 4 - # 2 "Puzzling Kitten" ridden by Rafael Hernandez pulled up on the far turn.

Race 5 – As the horses turned for home on the turf our upper pan video was blocked out from the 5/16 pole to just inside the 1/4 pole. Spoke with the TV department who were aware of the issue, apparently a TV production camera was being set up for tomorrow's Queens Plate. Problem to be resolved prior to next turf race. Observed Jockey Eurico Da Silva strike his mount "Marsantropist" more than three times in succession during the stretch run.

Race 6 – The Lady Angela Stakes - #6 "Gosudarina" required to have a shoe tacked on in the paddock. #3 "Bear Kitty" with Alan Garcia was off slow.

Race 7 – Reviewed the stretch run regarding #2 "Decidionsdecisions" ridden by Luis, #4 "Bakersfield" ridden by Rafael Hernandez and #5 "Spanish Express" ridden by Slade Callaghan. Rafael puts the squeeze on Luis on the fence top of stretch but Luis gets through and finishes ahead of Rafael. Slade Callaghan outside both of them at the time does not pressure Rafael or Luis. Second incident to the outside turning for home involving #3 "Get My Gist" ridden by Ademar Santos and #7 "Courtly Manner" ridden by Eurico Da Silva. Ademar swings wide off the turn and into the path of Eurico, however, Eurico finishes ahead of Ademar at the wire. There were no inquiries as those impeded finished in front of the offenders and their actions did deserve a call to movies.

Race 8 - #5 "Afleet Doll" ridden by David Moran made a left leaving there and into #4 "Junebug Jitters" ridden by Skye Chernetz causing that one a rough start, finished twelfth and thirteenth, no inquiry. Warned Jockey Jorge Expitia about standing up at the wire.
