Backstretch:

Trainer Bill Tharrenos attended, asked if a horse he is entering today for Wednesday in the Simcoe Stakes would be allowed to enter and then work as he is a 30 day horse for eligibility. Rule 6.30.02 states a horse must register a published workout in the Official program if not raced or worked out in the past 30 days, Stewards have discretion to waive this process in Stake races. He is to work the horse on Saturday, is permitted to enter.

Races:

66 in to go

All turf races today to be run at an about distance. Races 4, 6 and 8.

Race 1, Jockey claim of foul, #3 Indiantown Sunrise, D. Moran, 4th on #1 Louise the Laser, A. Santos, 1st around the 1/16th pole. Upon review of the upper pan and front tower camera angles. #3 is battling with the #4 as they make contact a couple of times and the #1 is coming in slightly from the outside. #3 does check but the #1 is clear by that time. Santos felt he was clear and Moran stated he wasn't able to claim foul with the man stationed at the 3/4 pole because his horse didn't gallop out that far, but felt he was interfered with by the #1. The claim of foul was disallowed and the order of finish remained.
