09:05 - Exercise rider Jodeien Anderson attended re: Fully suspended in Saskatchewan. Said he wasn't aware he couldn't come here and gallop horses and didn't realize he was to denote his suspension on his license application. Mr. Anderson is not to work until his suspension has terminated (Sept 7, 2019), or pending the outcome of his appeal that is to be heard on August 28. He must also meet with Woodbine Management concerning his occupancy in the dorm.

10:35 – Jockey Agent Neal Wilson attended on behalf of his rider Jesse Campbell and it was decided he would serve the three day suspension September 2, 6 and 7, 2019.

Film Reviews:

Review of yesterdays' sixth race with David Moran and Jesse Campbell. Jesse said he wasn't sure what happened at the time but David did come out in front of me and my horse lost its momentum. Never really made contact but had to check. David said he felt his horse shied from Emma Wilsons stick turning for home, two year old, you never know what to expect.

After deliberation, it was decided no penalty would be issued for the incident
