Race 7 – Inquiry – Reviewed racing at the three-quarters when the truck and drag came onto the track in front of the horses. The Starting Car driver used the horn to get the attention of the truck driver so that he would move from the inside of the track to the outside. At this point the horses were approaching the three-quarters and passing by the Starting Car. Judges spoke to all drivers in the race and after reviewing the film ruled that several horses and drivers were affected by the truck and ordered the race refunded. Purse money to be paid out to the top 5 finishers. Refund $25,356.
