Also reviewed for possible interference by either #1 Cant See Me (LP Roy) or #6 Wickedpace (Jody Jamieson) at the same spot in the stretch. Mr. Husted stated that #4 was under him and hooked his wheel multiple times in the stretch, and did not attempt to correct his horse. Mr. McClure stated that he and #7 were together, but he was forced out by #6. Mr. Jamieson stated that #1 was drifting out in front of him and he had to move out to avoid the wheel of #1. Mr. Roy stated he wasn't sure what happened behind him, as he only heard some guys yelling. The video showed that #1 is on the lead and drifts off the rail, which causes a chain reaction by causing interference in order to #s 6, 4 and then 7. Those three horses were charted with interference. No placings were needed. Objection disallowed as #1 was ruled at fault.
