Race 4 – Stewards Inquiry of the run down the backstretch involving #1 "River of Babylon" ridden by Jose Campos, #2 "Red Zeppelin" with Keveh Nicholls and #4 "Busta Groove" with Lenny Seecharan for interference. Jose said the two outside horses did come down but I wasn't really in there and my horse didn't want to be down on the fence, I was ok. Keveh said Lenny did come down on him just approaching the turn, had to check out of there. Lenny said I was next to Keveh and just stayed with him, clearing him approaching the turn, left him space. After review, there was no change, felt Keveh was out run approaching the turn.

Race 5 – Inquiry and Claim of Foul (COF) by Jason Hoyte aboard #3 “Villi Olento”, Jason wasn’t sure who to claim foul on but Patrick Husbands aboard #4 “Why Em Sea Ay” was to his outside. Jason said he felt maybe the horse outside Patrick may have been the culprit and Patrick said the outside was coming over on him. After review we saw no pressure from outside horses on Patrick and felt Jason’s horse came off the fence into the hind end of Patrick’s horse, turning that one in. No change.
